RAPID RISE OF SCHOOL ENROLLMENT, GROWTH IN POPULATION IS FORECAST

See 153,000 Residents Here by 1970; Cites Zoning, Planning Need

Predicting an astounding 41,000 population increase in Torrance by 1970, Allan G. Cooley, assistant to the president of General Telephone Co. spoke before the Downtown Torrance Rotary Club luncheon meeting, Wednesday.

In what the guest speaker described as a "conservative" estimate made by General Telephone, he forecasted the population of 153,000 for the city in less than a decade.

Cooley, speaking as a representative of the Southern California Development Team, in making the promise of Torrance progress cited a recent study which pointed out the dynamic "All American" city has experienced in the past 12 years.

65% DEVELOPED

In suggesting a program for development and growth the speaker reminded the congregation of business and civic leaders that although Torrance's industrial areas comprise over 24 per cent of the city, a figure of more than 3,200 acres only, 65 per cent is presently developed.

Cooley maintained that as Torrance becomes the hub of industry for this region—making up for the scarcity of industrial area in adjoining communities the city will reap the benefits with proper zoning and planning efforts.

"Torrance is fortunate to have a great deal of industrial land and with it goes a great latitude in planning for its development," the guesting presidential assistant from General Telephone stated.

CITY PLANNING
Cooley noted that the Torrance Chamber of Commerce has already taken the initial steps in successful city planning "... which is a gathering of data on taxes, education, recreation, planning, marketing information and other fundamental factors upon which your planning can be based."

TORRANCE YOUTH KILLED—Three life guards and bystander remove body yesterday morning of youth tentatively identified by police as James Emmitt Thomas, 23, of 20927 Halldale St., Torrance, from bottom of cliff at 1600 block, Poseo Del Mar, Palos Verdes. Car in which Thomas was riding went over cliff sometime Friday throwing the fatal victim from the vehicle. No explanation of the accident was available from police at press time.

6100 More Students Predicted by 1966; Speak on Bond Issue

The estimate of enrollment increase of school children by 1966 in Torrance is 6100 children, without counting any "move-ins" or subdivision not already built or approved. Sixty-one hundred pupils represents 231 stations or classrooms—98 at the elementary and 142 at the high school level. If these teaching stations are not provided, the result will be double sessions for twice as many students because each class that is double sessioned means two classes on double session.

Dr. Albert Posner, Assistant Superintendent, Education, points out that every time we have to put one class on double session it automatically puts another class on double session. Dr. Louis Kaplan, Assistant Superintendent, Special Services Division, points out the result that when we are short of classrooms for 6000 students it means that 12,000 students are affected.

people should have an opportunity to express themselves on this issue, according to Board President Albert Charles, particularly since it will not increase the tax rate.

"Torrance has made a tremendous effort to get her children off double sessions. With the help of the state school building program, we have achieved this objective. We now have to face the issue of whether or not we want to remain on full-day sessions," says Dd. J. H. Hull, superintendent. "This is what we will be deciding at the polls on September 18."

Sam Waldrip, assistant superintendent in charge of business, has analyzed the tax result of a "yes" vote. It appears that no increase in the tax rate will result. This is brought about by the tax ceiling of ten per cent of the assessed valuation for bonded indebtedness. Since we cannot sell the bonds beyond ten per cent and we are at the ceiling, our tax rate will remain the same. New bonds can only be sold in the amount of bonds paid off and retired or in the amount of ten per cent of new assessed valuation brought about by new business, industry and new construction.

If the board finds it necessary to remain bonded to capacity continually, the tax rate could even go down, according to immediate Past President William Hansen.

Board Member William Boswell feels that we must attempt to maintain the advantages for children that regular full-day school sessions provide.

Dr. Kurt Shery states that it is unthinkable that people would want to return their children to a half-day school.

Dr. Robert Morton, assistant superintendent, personnel, points out that one of the first things prospective teachers want to know is whether or not they are going to have to share a room with another teacher and another class. The best teachers are in demand and avoid these double session situations.

Dr. Hall, Superintendent of Schools in Torrance for the past 15 years, has lived with this problem of constant growth long enough that he has no desires to reduce educational opportunities for children at a time when the crying is for more and higher quality education for everyone.
